Abstract

Keywords: Bahrain, Laws & Regulations, Visas and Fees

The requirements for entering Bahrain for foreigners include holding a valid passport or travel document and a valid entry visa (Art. 5(1)).

A foreigner may not stay in Bahrain after the expiry of the validity date of his visa (Art. 7(5)).

Foreigners entering the country for any reason may be required to pay a deposit of no more than one thousand Rubies that may be used for their deportation. For those entering Bahrain for employment purposes, the employer may be required to pay the deposit or submit an undertaking to the Director of Immigration to bear all deportation costs (Art. 8(1((B))).
