Abstract

Keywords: Bahrain, Laws & Regulations, Citizenship

In accordance with Art. 14, a wife may not be given an independent passport or added to her husband's passport without his written approval. The same is applicable to underage children.

The Bahraini passport shall be withdrawn from anyone who has obtained it without being entitled to it (Art. 18).

Transit tickets or travel documents shall be issued to non-Bahrainis in the cases mentioned in article 3 of the law and are valid for two years without being renewable (Art. 33).

Any person issued a transit ticket or travel document in accordance with article 33, must obtain an entry, exit or return visa subject to the same rules applicable to a foreign resident who holds a non-Bahraini passport (Art. 34).

Art. 40 lists the fees for various services offered by the Immigration and Passports Administration including renewal of passport, issuing a travel document for Gulf Countries, ...etc.
