Abstract

This decision adopts the standard regulations for regulating work, which shall be used as a guide by employers in preparing their own regulations (Art. 1):
In accordance with Art. 1 of the Standard Regulations attached to this decision, the provisions shall be complementary to the work contract concluded between the establishment and the worker.
Art. 6 sets a retirement age of sixty for all workers. The administration may retain the worker past his retirement age on a temporary basis.
Workers are prohibited from working for another employer outside of their regular working hours unless they receive written approval from the administration (Art. 22).
Discrimination in wages on the basis of gender, origin, language, religion or faith is prohibited (Art. 27).
