Abstract

The Ministry of Labour and Social Development has made the following decisions based on the review of Resolution (68) for the year 2019 regarding the Wages Protection Scheme. A new article is added to the Second Article, stating that the payment of house maid wages and their equivalents can be optional through the Wages Protection Scheme until a specific stage is set by the minister. The Undersecretary of the Ministry of Labour & Social Development and all relevant entities are responsible for implementing this resolution
