Saudi Arabia: Ministerial Decision No. 2836 of 2006 / 1427H on Working Hours

Title	Saudi Arabia: Ministerial Decision No. 2836 of 2006 / 1427H on Working Hours
Date of adoption	2 October 2006
Entry into force	In effect
	Arabic Source: The Ministry of Labor — Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, accessed: 20 January 2014, http://portal.mol.gov.sa/ar/Documents/12836.pdf

Abstract

Keywords: Saudi Arabia, Laws & Regulations, Labour Migration, Work Conditions

This decision is in implementation of Art. 99 of the Labor Law (Royal Decree M/51).

The working hours shall be increased to nine hours a day for those working in the following places (Art. 1):

- Restaurants
- 2. Hotels and hotel apartments
- 3. Cafes
- 4. Cafeterias
- 5. Hospitals, Dispensaries and Medical Clinics
- 6. Markets and Commercial Shops
- 7. Barber and Tailor Shops
- 8. Gas Stations

The working hours shall be decreased to seven hours a day for those working in the following sectors (Art. 2):

- Mechanical Industries
- 2. Construction Industries
- 3. Textile Industries
- 4. Chemical Industries
- 5. Leather Industry
- 6. Paper Industry
- 7. Wood Industries
- 8. Working underground