

Oman: Ministerial Decision No. 657/2011 Regulating Emergency Leave in Private Sector Establishments

Title Oman: Ministerial Decision No. 657/2011
Regulating Emergency Leave in Private Sector
Establishments

Date of adoption 31 December 2011

Entry into force In effect

Text versions Arabic
Source:
– Said al Shahry Legal Training Centre,
Official Journal Issue No. 956, p. 3.

Abstract

Keywords: Oman, Laws & Regulations, National & Foreign Labour, Labour Rights

A worker shall be entitled to fully-paid emergency leave for six days each year, in accordance with the following conditions (Art. 1):

1. If his absence from work is for an unexpected reason beyond his control which could not be reported earlier to obtain a leave of absence.
2. Emergency leave shall not exceed two days at a time.
3. The worker must submit proof of the reason he had to miss work if possible.
4. The employer must be informed of the emergency as soon as it occurs.