ANNEXED NOTE

1. Technical Notes and Definitions

The table provides data of Bahrain's resident population based on the census of 2010, based on their place of residence by governorate, nationality and sex for the census year of 2010

Reference period for Census 2010 is April 27th, 2010 .

Implementation method: the Censuses are carried out according to de jure methodology, i.e. counting persons using their usual place of residence irrespective of where are they at census times

Population of reference: Bahrainis present within Bahrain's borders during time of reference

Nationality is the person's passport country. A Non-Bahrainis is considered as such depending on the passport used to enter the country (or obtain the visa).

A Governorate refers to an administrative, regional, non-central unit, with a separate legal entity and budgetary provisions. Bahrain has been divided into governorates based on Decree (16) of 1996. Each governorate is headed by a governor that manages it, assisted by an assistant governor, an administrative body and a select number of individuals with a council.
