Abstract

Keywords: Laws & Regulations, Qatar, Labour Market, Foreign Labour

In accordance with Art. 2 of this law, non-Qatari investors may invest in all sectors of the national economy, provided that they have a Qatari partner/s who contributes by no less than 51% of the capital (para. 1).

Non-Qatari Investors may exceed that limit subject to a decision by the Minister of Trade and Economy in the following fields: agriculture, industry, health, education, tourism, development, exploitation of natural resources, energy, mining and business consultancy, technical, information technology, cultural, sports, entertainment and distribution services (para. 2).

Non-Qatari investors may not invest in banks, insurance companies, commercial agencies and real estate procurement (para. 3).

This Law repeals Law No. 25 of 1990 Regulating the Investment of Non-Qatari Capital in Economic Activity.
