Abstract

Art. 2 of this decision requires employers to transfer the wages of their employees to their Qatari bank account within seven days of their due date through the Wage Protection System instituted by the Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs (Art. 2).
Employers who fail to comply with article 2 of this decision will be penalized by either not being granted new work permits for employees or freezing the processing of all applications submitted to the Ministry until they have transferred all pending wages (Art. 4).
