

Saudi Arabia: Amending the Executive Regulations of the Labor Law 51848

Title Saudi Arabia: Amending the Executive Regulations of the Labor Law 51848

Date of conclusion 05/11/2020

Entry into force Following the date of its issuance.

Text version(s) English

Source Ministry of Human Resources and Social Development (MHRSD), Minister's Decree No. 51484 of 2020: Saudi Arabia (05 Nov 2020)
Accessed: 30 April 2023.

Keywords Saudi Arabia; Laws & Regulations; Policy; Labour

Abstract

MHRSD outlines proposed amendments to the Implementing Regulations of the Labor Law in Saudi Arabia. The amendments include changes to the conditions under which an expatriate worker can work for another employer without the current employer's consent, including allowing for this after the expiration of an authenticated employment contract and after twelve months of employment in the Kingdom. The worker must provide at least ninety days' notice to the current employer before terminating the contract, unless both parties agree otherwise.