Title	Saudi Arabia: The Cooperative Health Insurance Law (No. 71)
Date of adoption	11 August 1999
Entry into force	In effect
Text versions	Arabic English Source: - The Council of Cooperative Health Insurance, accessed: 13 September 2013.
Abstract

- Art. 1 defines the purpose of this law, which is to ensure the provision and regulation of healthcare to all non-Saudi residents of the Kingdom. The law may also be applied to citizens and other individuals by issuing a Ministerial Decision on the matter.
- Art. 2 determines that the coverage of the cooperative health insurance shall include all non-Saudi residents and their dependents in accordance with article 5b.

Taking into account article 5b and the provisions of articles 12 and 13 of this law, each sponsor responsible for a resident must ensure to subscribe to the cooperative health insurance on his behalf. A residence permit may not be granted or renewed until after the Cooperative Health Insurance document has been provided and it must cover the whole duration of residence (Art. 3).

- Art. 7 lists the main health services covered by the cooperative health insurance document.
- Art. 8 allows the employer to expand the scope of the services covered by the cooperative health insurance at an additional fee.
- Art. 10 requires the employer to bear the costs of his employee's treatment until the subscription to the cooperative health insurance on his behalf takes effect.
- Art. 14 lists the penalties for failing to fulfill the obligations under this law of the employer and the insurance companies.

A resident who is not sponsored by his employer must fulfill the latter's obligations in accordance with this law (Art. 15).
